

Youth Leadership Program

To help provide social support and prevention education, to Teenagers in Lewis County.

This group is open to anyone 11 years and older who would be interested in building relationship with other Teens in Lewis County. The focus will be providing social support, and providing prevention education to equip them to support their friends and peers.

- Helping Teens engage in their community
- Suicide Prevention
- Prevention Education
- Social Support
- Community Support

Thursdays from 4:00 PM –5:00 PM

The group does not meet on the second Thursday of every month.

Location: Cascade Community Healthcare

To sign up please contact

mcelhaneys@cascadementalhealth.org or call 360-748-4339

Washington State
Health Care Authority